Participation fee is Rs 5000/- (or) USD 75 will be applicable for each Co-Exhibitor ( Taxes Extra )                                                                   |                         |                                 |
| 9. Exhibitors who convert Indoor Built-up stalls into Indoor Raw Space by combining multiple units will be charged as per the built-up rental scheme. This applies even if the final configuration resembles Raw Space. The rationale behind this policy is to enable more companies to participate. Therefore, companies opting to occupy such stalls and convert them must bear the built-up rental charges.                              |                         |                                 |
| Additionally, whether under the Outdoor Raw Space or Indoor Built-up or Indoor Raw Space category, if an exhibitor books two or more stalls, rental will be charged for each stall booked as per the size featured in the layout, wherein clubbed or consolidated pricing slab will not be applicable on total space. Each stall will be invoiced individually at the applicable rate. This rule is not applicable for Hall 3 middle level. |                         |                                 |
| Please note that, in the case of a conversion from built-up to raw space, the standard built-up stall entitlements—such as tables, chairs, carpeting, and basic power—will not be provided.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                         |                                 |
